

Fainted in the Black Hole.

A Tramp Overcome in the Pen Where the Vikings Were Held.

He Swoons Again in Court, but is Put Back When He is Revived.

The horrible pen in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, was in a worse condition than the traditional sweat-box this morning.

It was not crowded, and but one man was suffocated to-day. He was Charles Anderson, a tramp, who said he lived in Hoboken, N. J.

Anderson was picked up, while drunk, by Policemen Farrell, of the Third Precinct, in Smith street early this morning.

He had been in the Police Court pen for a few minutes when he fell to the floor insensible.

An ambulance was called, and Dr. Townsend, of the Long Island College, responded.

He said the man had taken too much rum.

Dr. Townsend applied ammonia very copiously to Anderson's nostrils, which revived him enough to be taken before Judge Tighe for arraignment.

As he was brought away from the pen, he fell to the floor again. Dr. Townsend resorted to the same treatment. The pen of the Butler Street Court, however, was not so hot as the sweat-box again to recover, if he could.

Then pen of the Butler Street Court, where Capt. Magnus Andersen and five of the Vikings were placed with several other men when they were arrested Monday morning.

He had been in the Police Court pen for a few minutes when he fell to the floor insensible.

An ambulance was called, and Dr. Townsend, of the Long Island College, responded.

He said the man had taken too much rum.

Dr. Townsend applied ammonia very copiously to Anderson's nostrils, which revived him enough to be taken before Judge Tighe for arraignment.

As he was brought away from the pen, he fell to the floor again. Dr. Townsend resorted to the same treatment. The pen of the Butler Street Court, however, was not so hot as the sweat-box again to recover, if he could.

Then pen of the Butler Street Court, where Capt. Magnus Andersen and five of the Vikings were placed with several other men when they were arrested Monday morning.

IS HE A KIDNAPPER?

Mysterious Man Who Coaxes Brooklyn Children Away.

The Brooklyn police are looking for a tall, dark complexioned man, twenty-five years of age, dressed in dark clothing and wearing a brown derby hat, who is believed to be a professional kidnapper.

Several times the police have been notified that a man answering his description had attempted to coax little children to go away with him.

Yesterday afternoon, while Archie Deisinger, aged four; Mabel Meister, aged five, and Hazel Pierce, aged three, were playing in front of their home, 151 Jay street, the mysterious man came along, and after playing with the children awhile, took them to several local cream places, where he bought them candy, soda water and cake.

Four hours after the children had disappeared, the mother brought them back unharmed.

The children said the man had not ill-treated them in any way.

The parents of the children are puzzled over the affair, but the police believe that this is a kidnapper, and the same person who has coaxed a number of children away under similar circumstances, though in each instance the little ones have been returned to their parents.

MAY BE A MURDER.

Hughes, Who Was Hit with a Beer Glass, Said to Be Dying.

Thomas Purcell, of 200 Franklin street, Greenpoint, was taken to the Police Court to-day without bail, and the probabilities are that he will have to face a charge of murder.

On June 10 some men who were having a mixed ale party in Purcell's house became involved in a quarrel and a desperate fight ensued. Charles Hughes was struck with a beer glass.

Purcell was arrested for the assault and released on bail, but recently Hughes's condition became so serious that Coroner Creamer ordered Purcell's arrest to-day.

It was said at the hospital to-day that the only means of saving Hughes's life was by trephining, which operation will be performed this afternoon by Dr. Hilsander.

DISSATISFIED WITH WORTH.

Trouble Ahead for Brooklyn's New Republican Leader.

Many of the Republicans in Brooklyn who have worked hard to bring about the reorganization of the party in Kings County are said to be dissatisfied with the present state of affairs, and it is not thought likely that ex-Senator Worth will be able to further his new plans without meeting with considerable opposition.

Mr. Worth, as Chairman of the Committee on Organization, to whom were referred the cases of disputed delegates to the County Committee from the Eleventh, Seventeenth, Twentieth and Twenty-eighth Wards wants to reorganize the party again in these wards and districts, and he says, to straighten matters out.

NO GENERAL STRIKE ORDERED.

The Williamsburg Sugar Refiners Seem to Have Won the Victory.

The strike of firemen in the Williamsburg sugar refineries is virtually over, as the Brooklyn and American refineries have enough men at work to handle all the business.

It was admitted by the strikers to-day that a general strike would not be ordered, and without this the Company's victory is an accomplished fact.

Capt. Scott, of the Bedford avenue station, has withdrawn all his reserves from along Rockaway.

Ben-Brother Robbed to See the Fair.

William Mason, of 47 Fulton street, Brooklyn, notified the police to-day that his step-son, Frank McGowan, had disappeared.

Mr. Mason also reported that four sons of his cities and $50 in money had also disappeared. His step-son had remained several times recently that he would like to go to the World's Fair, and that he desired him was the necessary cash and a suitable outfit.

MOTORMAN MOFFATT GOES FREE.

James Moffatt, aged twenty-two, of one Twenty-first street, Brooklyn, was taken to the Police Court to-day, charged with the murder of a man, of the Fifth Avenue branch, was discharged by Justice Tighe, in the Butler Street Court, Brooklyn, this morning, on the charge of negligent negligence in running down and killing Henry Bellinger, seven years old, of 655 Baltic street, Brooklyn.

BABY FOUND IN THE LUBBER.

Lawrence Day, of 110 Luger street, Brooklyn, was going through Sixth street, Bay Ridge, this morning when he heard the cries of an infant in a dump of bushes at the corner of Fourth avenue. He found a female child about ten years old lying on the ground.

The child was taken to a police station and sent to the city nurse.

LOST A $400 DIAMOND STU.

Charles Victor Sass, the well-known turfman and Secretary of the Tooting Association, said the Brooklyn police to-day to help him find a $400 diamond stone which he either lost or was robbed of while on his way to the suburban yesterday. Mr. Sass discovered his loss about ten o'clock on the ground.

He was on his way to the Franklin and Atlantic railroad train at Franklin and Atlantic at 8,000 P. M. in a Blacksmith Shop.

Fire in a Blacksmith Shop at 537 South Avenue, Brooklyn, on Monday night, when $10,000 damage was done.

SET TWO DOGS ON SCHNITZER.

Roersch and Lanzer Wreak Revenge on a Saloon-Keeper.

The Latter's Wife Horsewhipped During the Struggle.

Julius Goldner, a furrier, of 216 Floyd street, and Mrs. John Schnitzer, whose husband keeps a saloon on the ground floor of the same building, applied in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day for a warrant for the arrest of Joseph Roersch, a wealthy cigar manufacturer of 42 Summit avenue, and Herman Lanzer, of 336 Floyd street. They were too late to see Justice Connolly, and were told to call again to-morrow.

According to the story they told Goldner, the wife was playing with a dog in Schnitzer's saloon last night, and after some words Lanzer knocked Goldner down, then Roersch and the two Schnitzers threw Lanzer out of the place.

In a few minutes he returned with a big club in his hand. Accompanying him was Roersch, who had a carriage and brought two Newfoundland dogs.

Roersch pointed to Schnitzer, and the dog jumped for him. Schnitzer, who was sitting him, was very badly bitten, while the other hit his wife. Schnitzer fled the door, howling, and cried for assistance.

In the mean time Lanzer was beating Schnitzer with a club, and the latter sprang along to her husband's aid. "I got one of the dogs by the collar," said Roersch, "and I hit him over the face and neck with his horse whip. He told me he had nothing against me, but he was afraid of my husband, for there was an old grudge to settle."

Finally the dogs were attracted to the house, and Roersch and Lanzer, accompanied by the dogs, ran away. An ambulance was called, and the wounds of the injured persons.

Schnitzer was unable to get up to-day, his wife was very badly bitten, and the doctor fears his injuries may result seriously. Roersch could not be seen, but a reporter who called at his place to-day.

FATHER M'KENNA'S FUNERAL.

Fully 3,000 People Attend at St. Ann's Church.

The funeral of Rev. Charles B. McKenna, the young priest, of St. Ann's Catholic Church, 115 East Twelfth street, was celebrated by Rev. Father Patrick Mahoney, as deacon, and Rev. Father Murphy, of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, as sub-deacon.

McKenna was born in Glasgow, Scotland, twenty-seven years ago, and was brought by his parents to the United States when three years old. He was ordained a year ago from St. Joseph's Seminary in Troy, N. Y.

He was assistant pastor of St. Ann's and was a very eloquent preacher and great favorite of the young in his parish.

DRIVER LOVE MUST ANSWER.

His Wagon Killed Machinist John J. Downey.

Robert Love, aged twenty, of 428 East Sixteenth street, was committed to the custody of the coroner by Justice Mc Mahon, in the Yorkville Police Court this morning, charged with having driven a heavy wagon over John J. Downey, at Third avenue and Forty-fourth street, last evening, causing Downey's death.

Downey was fifty-one years old, and lived at 88 Third avenue.

It was said at the hospital to-day that the only means of saving Hughes's life was by trephining, which operation will be performed this afternoon by Dr. Hilsander.

Love tried to get away after the accident, but was caught by a lady, who in a light wagon and caught after a long chase.

BROOKLYN NEEDS MONEY.

It Has Not Enough on Hand to Pay Its Debts.

The officials of Brooklyn are in a quandary over the deficiencies in the various departments that have come to light since the Board of Estimate met to arrange the county budget.

The city has not sufficient money in the treasury to meet the debts incurred by the various departments.

At a meeting of the Board of Estimate this morning it was found that the deficit was $2,000,000. The deficit was so large that the Legislature will have to be appealed to in order to raise the money.

Corporation Counsel Jenks will render an opinion to-morrow upon the subject.

PIPER SUES FOR $50,000.

Elwin S. Piper, the well known dry-goods merchant of Grand street, Brooklyn, is the plaintiff in a $50,000 damage suit against the New York Central Railroad in the Circuit Court, Brooklyn.

Mr. Piper in his complaint says that while a passenger in one of the Company's cars, he was thrown from the train at Saratoga for New York, he opened what he supposed was the door of the car, and was thrown into the tunnel, through which the train was passing. He had opened the vestibule door.

He says the car was so badly tilted that he had to grope his way, and he was never recovered from the effects of his fall.

The case is still on.

Forgave the Wife Who Stabbed Him.

William H. Stone, of 210 West Twenty-fourth street, this morning refused to prosecute his pretty wife, Dolores, whom he had arrested last night for stabbing him with a hair-pin, and Justice Vorhies, in Jefferson Market Court, declared her free.

THEY'RE NOT ALL ALIKE.

There is a difference of opinion as to whether or not the blood of the Jews is so far-reaching and so unfailing in its effects that it can be guaranteed to do all that is promised for it. That is Dr. Pierce's opinion. He says that the blood of the Jews is not so far-reaching and so unfailing in its effects that it can be guaranteed to do all that is promised for it.

$6,000 CHECK MISSING.

Post-Office Authorities Searching for a Possibly Misdirected Letter.

The post-office authorities are looking for a check for $6,000, which was mailed to A. Jersey Water Company, of 2 Wall street, in payment for stenographic services. The check was mailed June 9, but since that time no trace of it has been found, and the postal authorities believe that the company containing the check was misdirected.

SWIMMING FETTER ARRESTED.

James Ryan, twenty-two years of age, of Willow avenue, Hoboken, was arrested this morning by Detective Kerrigan on the charge of swimming. Ryan went from home to a bath and when he received a letter for his wife, he went out for change, but did not return. The police have been looking for him for some time.

UNITED STATES SAVINGS BANK.

1048 Third Ave., cor. 62d St., New York, June 2, 1893.

Interest for half year ending June 30, 1893, at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent. per annum, will be credited to depositors entitled thereto. Interest payable Friday, July 21, 1893. Interest from July 1 on deposits made on or before July 10.

Constant A. Andrews, President, George A. Middlebrook, Sec'y.

WINGS ONCE MORE FREE.

The Charges Preferred Against Them in Brooklyn Dismissed.

No Complaints Appeared in the Butler Street Police Court.

Capt. Magnus Andersen and his wife, who are no longer under bail in Brooklyn and the City of Churches has partly atoned for its discourtesy.

The charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct were dismissed by Justice Tighe in the Butler Street Police Court at 7:55 o'clock this morning.

The Mayor, Police Commissioner and other interested city officials laid out the programme yesterday, and Justice Tighe played his part to-day.

No explanation was made, no questions were asked, Policeman Tate, who made the arrests, was not called from his vacation. Wagonman M. J. Dunn, of the Eleventh Precinct, was not on hand to press his charges.

Mr. Andersen and his wife were not called to plead guilty. They stood before the bar, resolute, but docile ready to meet the case in any shape it might be presented.

About 7 A. M. groups of Scandinavians made their way to the dingy yellow building at 115 East Twelfth street. By 7:30 o'clock the court-room was packed to the doors. The atmosphere was stifling.

Fully 250 Scandinavians were in and about the court when Capt. Andersen and his wife were brought in.

There was a ripple of applause as they hurried to the door of the court-room and bowed their way inside.

The case had been set down for 8 o'clock. It lacked five minutes of that time when Justice Tighe took his seat on the bench.

"Dunn against Andersen," called out the clerk.

Capt. Andersen moved forward to the box. He was accompanied by his counsel, August Reiser, and his wife.

"Magnus Andersen, Rasmus Rasmussen, Fred Frantzen, Oscar, Seiberg, and John and Jens Hild," continued the Court Clerk.

As each name was called, the sturdy seamen made his stand beside his capital in front of the bench.

There was a pause.

No guardian of the peace presented himself as a complainant against the men.

"Dismissed," said Justice Tighe, in his ordinary tone.

No further action was taken, and the court-room, the captain was greeted by the shouts of his fellow-countrymen, and then the Scandinavians dispersed.

Capt. Andersen was in a hurry to get out of the court, and his wife, who was with him, was also in a hurry to get out.

"Dismissed," said Justice Tighe, in his ordinary tone.

There was a ripple of applause as they hurried to the door of the court-room and bowed their way inside.

The case had been set down for 8 o'clock. It lacked five minutes of that time when Justice Tighe took his seat on the bench.

"Dunn against Andersen," called out the clerk.

Capt. Andersen moved forward to the box. He was accompanied by his counsel, August Reiser, and his wife.

"Magnus Andersen, Rasmus Rasmussen, Fred Frantzen, Oscar, Seiberg, and John and Jens Hild," continued the Court Clerk.

As each name was called, the sturdy seamen made his stand beside his capital in front of the bench.

There was a pause.

No guardian of the peace presented himself as a complainant against the men.

"Dismissed," said Justice Tighe, in his ordinary tone.

No further action was taken, and the court-room, the captain was greeted by the shouts of his fellow-countrymen, and then the Scandinavians dispersed.

Capt. Andersen was in a hurry to get out of the court, and his wife, who was with him, was also in a hurry to get out.

"Dismissed," said Justice Tighe, in his ordinary tone.

No further action was taken, and the court-room, the captain was greeted by the shouts of his fellow-countrymen, and then the Scandinavians dispersed.

Capt. Andersen was in a hurry to get out of the court, and his wife, who was with him, was also in a hurry to get out.

RECEPTION TO MAYOR GILROY.

The Vikings Entertain City Officials on Their Craft.

After their release from the clutches of the Brooklyn police, the Vikings to-day gave a reception on board their little raft to Mayor Gilroy, Register Ferdinand Levy, Comptroller Myers, President McClellan, of the Board of Aldermen; Public Works Commissioner Daly and General Hughes, who were all on board.

The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

The luncheon consisted of pate de foie gras, sandwiches, beer and coffee. The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

The luncheon consisted of pate de foie gras, sandwiches, beer and coffee. The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

The luncheon consisted of pate de foie gras, sandwiches, beer and coffee. The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

The luncheon consisted of pate de foie gras, sandwiches, beer and coffee. The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

The luncheon consisted of pate de foie gras, sandwiches, beer and coffee. The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

The luncheon consisted of pate de foie gras, sandwiches, beer and coffee. The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

The luncheon consisted of pate de foie gras, sandwiches, beer and coffee. The Mayor, Comptroller and Carroll were taken to the Viking by the Dock Department's tug. The rest, who were late, were taken aboard by Dock Commissioner Cram in his steam launch.

Capt. Andersen, the Viking chief, made a brief speech of welcome, which was responded to by Mayor Gilroy.

A luncheon was then served, in the course of which Capt. Andersen toasted Mayor Gilroy. Mayor Gilroy again responded.

NURSE AND DOCTOR ARRESTED.

Mrs. Reilly and Physician Phillips Charged with Mrs. Adair's Death.

Indicted for Manslaughter in the Flatbush Asylum Case.

Mrs. Ellen Reilly, the nurse in the Flatbush Insane Asylum, who had charge of the ward in which Mrs. Martha Adair was confined, and Dr. F. M. Phillips, who made out a death certificate stating that Mrs. Adair died of old age, were arrested this morning on bench warrants issued by District Attorney Ridgway, the Grand Jury having indicted them for manslaughter in the second degree.

Mrs. Reilly was brought into the Court of Sessions to plead to the indictment. She was dressed in black and appeared to be downcast.

The indictment charges that she was culpably negligent in not taking proper care of Mrs. Adair, who had received injuries at the hands of some unknown person or persons which caused her death.

Mrs. Reilly said she had no bail to offer, but no lawyer had been called to defend her.

Dr. Phillips was also brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Dr. Phillips was brought in. He was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

MRS. JONES OR MRS. REDDING.

Double Identification of a Body Found in the Passaic.

She Will Be Buried as the Former, Despite Proofs to the Contrary.

NEWARK, N. J., June 21.—Joseph Borden, a painter, claims that the body of the woman found in the Passaic River Saturday is that of his sister, Eugene Redding, who left her four children at 113 Church street on Monday. His wife and brother George have also identified the body by three scars on right leg and by clothing.

They received a letter from her June 17, saying she would go astray because of her husband's conduct. He left her several months ago taking the eldest child with him, and two days later sent her a letter saying he had left her forever because of her infidelity.

The body was identified yesterday by people in Jersey City as that of Mrs. Minnie Jones, of Seventh street, and they took it to a funeral home to-day for the Harrison mortuary. It will be buried at 113 Church street.

Borden says he notified Deputy Coroner Rother that it was his sister.

He will claim the body because he says he is too poor to bury it.

LIZZIE BORDEN GOES HOME.

She and Her Sister Mabel Affected on Reaching the Old House.

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 21.—Lizzie Borden returned with her sister this morning to the current Yorkwood street, after having spent the night at Charles B. Holmes's residence on Pine street.

They drove up to the gate in a closed carriage. There were very few spectators, for the crowds of last night knew nothing of the hour when the long imprisoned girl would return. They defended themselves to all newspaper men in accordance with the suggestions of their counsel.

The sofa on which Mrs. Borden lay when he was murdered is at the Central Police station, and will not be removed for a day or two.

A domestic in the family house on Second street is reported to have said that the two sisters broke down completely when they had entered their old home.

To-day Andrew J. Jennings is receiving letters and telegrams of congratulations from all parts of the country, and Miss Borden's mail at the Post-Office is very heavy.

The people of the city have been changed greatly by the verdict, and there is a manifest respect for the decision of the jury.

CHARGED WITH MANY CRIMES.

Frank Coleman, Burglar and Thief, Arrested in Hackensack.

HACKENSACK, N. J., June 21.—Frank Coleman, alias Frank Keenan, alias Frank Jones, is in the Hackensack Jail charged with various serious crimes.

He was arrested in Snake Hill for burglary, and escaped from the prison at Dover, N. J.

He committed a highway robbery at Leonia, N. J., knowing Henry Valentine unconscious with a fence rail and relieving him of his valuables.

He was charged with burglary at Englewood and Ridgewood Park, where he stole two valuable watches and some jewelry.

For the past three weeks Coleman has been working for Liverman at 100 West 12th street, where he sold a set of stolen tools.

Special Officer Henry Wilker, of Ridge-wood, charged Coleman after a diligent search about 3 o'clock this morning.

Wilker believes there is a charge of murder against Coleman.

He was arrested in Snake Hill for burglary, and escaped from the prison at Dover, N. J.

He committed a highway robbery at Leonia, N. J., knowing Henry Valentine unconscious with a fence rail and relieving him of his valuables.

He was charged with burglary at Englewood and Ridgewood Park, where he stole two valuable watches and some jewelry.

For the past three weeks Coleman has been working for Liverman at 100 West 12th street, where he sold a set of stolen tools.

Special Officer Henry Wilker, of Ridge-wood, charged Coleman after a diligent search about